MOTORCOACH ITINERARY

Spend a beautiful summer day exploring George Washington's beloved Mount Vernon on the banks of the Potomac River. This living museum of the life and times of the Father of Our Country will sure to delight as you tour the mansion, visit the working plantation outbuildings, and stroll through Martha Washington's beautiful gardens. A delightful lunch outing and scenic cruise along the Potomac enhance this summer day! As you arrive at Mount Vernon, experience an introduction to George Washington through the film "We Fight to Be Free" at the Ford Orientation Center. Following the film, enter the historic upper area on a self-guided tour through the Blacksmith, Slave Quarters, Greenhouse, Outbuildings and beautifully decorative Upper Garden. Then make your way to the famed mansion for your guided tour. Built in 1735 by George Washington's father, Augustine, at 11,028 square feet and 21 rooms, it is known to be one of America's most iconic homes. Your tour of Mount Vernon reveals a unique picture of the colonial American life. Located just footsteps from the historic estate, you'll enjoy a lunch of classic American favorites in the colonial inspired setting of the Mount Vernon Inn Restaurant. After lunch, you'll have time to visit the Museum & Education Center and the Shops at Mount Vernon. You'll then embark on a narrated sightseeing cruise on the Potomac River where you'll experience Mount Vernon from a different perspective.
